THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO. | ATLANTA, GEORGIA, TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 1871. | VOLUME III---NUMBER 231

Evening Edition.

MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1871.

☞ See Fourth Page, for interesting Reading

☞ Ex-Governor Perry, of South Carolina, has written a strong letter to Governor Scott, telling him that two things are inevitably necessary to State prosperity, viz: to disarm the militia and appoint good men to office.

Georgia Concerns.

Turner Blackwell, sentenced by Judge Robinson to be hanged for murder, on April 14, has had the sentence commuted by Gov. Bullock to life imprisonment. The Governor can't get his consent to hang a negro vote.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION says the Savannah Republican affirms that the Advertiser has been sued for libel. If we were not of a Christian turn of mind, we should say that the Republican lied, but with high moral precepts in view, we forbear.—Sav. Advertiser.

Savannah had a large celebration of St. Patrick's day. The Savannah and Skidaway Railroad is to have a branch to Montgomery. The iron has arrived. The New York Mutual Base Ball Club will visit Savannah on the 9th of April. Great combobboration over it.

M. M. Barron starts a new paper called the "Heard County News," in Franklin. Success to it. It tells us that James Awtry killed W. A. Alsabrooks.

Augusta has dog fights for money, and is going to organize a jockey club.

The Savannah News, in its account of the dinner of the Hibernian Society on St Patrick's day, gives the following as one of the regular toasts:

4. The President of the United States—May the Lord grant unto him power and competency to steer the barque of this mighty Republic clear of the shoals and quicksands that encompass her, into a haven of safety; give him sufficient knowledge and understanding to protect the interests of himself, his family, and his family's families; lead him not into temptation, and deliver him from evil counsellors and St. Domingo jobs.

Responded to by Mr. John McLaughlin in a most amusing style—saying, in the beginning, that he had assisted in composing and arranging the toasts, and did not expect to reply to any; and that they really were not able to think of a man to call on to reply to (except Booby Clift, Jim Simms, or Alpeorth Bradley. Dr. Arnold said, "Let us all pray."

The Murder of Colonel Fish.—The Albany News of Tuesday says:

The authorities of Oglethorpe succeeded last week in getting testimony sufficient to justify the commitment of a negro for the killing of Col. Fish. There seems to be no doubt of his identity as the instrument of the murder, but it is far more certain that he was incited to the horrible deed by some fiend with a white skin; and suspicion rests heavily on two or three Railroaders—one of whom recently held a high position in the Georgia Legislature. There was no politics in the animus of the killing. Col. Farrow, Attorney-General, was present, and went away satisfied that politics had nothing to do with the affair, and doubtless convinced that one of his own party was the author of the crime.

Mr. Charles H. Williams delivers the address in Columbus on the 26th April, at the decoration of Confederate graves.

Major Girardey presented Joseph Parker a cane in Augusta.

Amos L. Vail, of Elberton, dead.

Joseph E. Veal was unanimously elected Alderman in Rome in place of Underwood.

The Rome Commercial says the Katie Putnam Troupe is bursted.

The Columbus Sun says the planters in that section will plant as much cotton as last year. Not much guano bought, however. The East Alabama and Cincinnati Railroad is progressing. It is to connect Opelika and Chattanooga. The first twenty miles will be done by April the 15th. The Columbus Germans had a peace jubilee on Thursday.

Cuthbert has strawberries.

Colonel Acton, the "fat boy" with the "white hat," was in Madison on Wednesday last. THE CONSTITUTION increases its subscription list whenever the Colonel visits us; it is the paper of this section.—Covington Examiner.

The Covington Examiner says the cotton planters are going it heavy on grain. The cotton will reach last year's production.

The Thomaston Herald reports the burning of Colonel T. M. Weaver's house. Loss, $1500; insurance, $1,800.

The Dahlonega Signal says the Yahoola Mining Company has gotten into law. This stops operations.

KNOXVILLE.

LIBEL AND PREACHER-WHIPPING SUIT—PLANTERS BUSY—IMPROVEMENTS.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., March 14, 1871.

Editor Constitution: In my last, I spoke of visiting the "preacher-whipping county." Since that time, Rev. Mr. Smith, one of the unfortunate preachers, has had a hearing in the Federal Court, and the jury returned a verdict of $1,900 dollars against each one of the malefactors, five in number, I believe. Notwithstanding Mr. Smith was shamefully beaten, and is still suffering from the effects; he received about $9,000 damages, and Col. Baxter, who sued the proprietors of the Whig and Register for damages to his character, in the Circuit Court, received, or rather the jury returned, a verdict for $27,000. The former a poor man and a rebel, the latter a wealthy man. Should the Colonel succeed as well with his other libel cases, he can afford to retire to private life. A large crowd of citizens were present during the trial of both cases, and manifested much interest in the term.

After having so much inclement weather within the last month, we are prepared to enjoy the beautiful spring days that we are now having.

The fine weather has brought about a change in the appearance of the city. The merchants are not so busy, because planters are at work and will not take time to come into the market. I notice the resumption of work on the buildings which have been neglected for some time on account of the cold weather. The building which attracts the attention of strangers, is the new store house of Cowan, McClung & Co., now in process of erection. This mammoth house fronts on Gay street 80 feet, and extends back 167 feet. It will have three large store rooms in each story, and will be five stories high; and the arrangements will be such as to have ample light in each store room, thereby avoiding the trouble of having to take the goods to light in order that they may be seen.

The foundation of the new custom house is about being laid. It will be built of a beautiful granite, which is found near the city, and promises to be a magnificent building. There are other improvements going on in the city, but of minor importance.

The Gilbert sisters, who have been playing before crowded houses for near four weeks, give their last entertainment to night.

Yours, etc., B. E. R.

GRANT'S IGNORANCE.—We know that Grant, when remonstrated with last spring for Boutwell's absurd regulations in respect to the luggage of passengers arriving in the United States, replied that he "did not believe in our people buying things abroad, anyhow"—the ignoramus! This remark furnishes the key to his own policy and that of his administration respecting imported goods.—N. Y. World.

☞ A Jefferson county, New York, farmer laughed when his prudent wife advised him not to smoke on a load of hay. He footed it home that night, with his hair singed, most of his garments a prey to the devouring element, and the iron work of the wagon in a potato sack, and then his wife laughed.

SUNDAY'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—A bill has been prepared, at the instance of the Revenue Commissioner, and will be introduced to-morrow, authorizing him to employ a police force when necessary for the collection of the revenue. The bill appropriates a million dollars.

The Commissioners of Claims, appointed under the act of Congress, March 3, 1871, to receive, examine, and consider the justice and validity of such claims as shall be brought before them of those citizens who remained loyal adherents to the cause and government of the United States during the war, for stores or supplies taken or furnished during the rebellion, for the use of the army of the United States, in States proclaimed as in insurrection against the United States, including the use and loss of vessels or boats while employed in the military service of the United States, give notice that their sessions for examining the claims and hearing the testimony of witnesses, and other evidence that may be brought before them in support of such claims, will begin on the 2d Monday, 10th day of April next, and will be held in their office at Washington, D. C.

The cases will be heard in the order in which they are presented. Petitions for the allowance of claims may be presented to Chas. F. Benjamin, clerk of the Commision, at Washington, who will receive, file and enter them upon the register at the date and in the order of presentation. The clerk will also furnish, upon application, the rules and regulations prescribing the form of the petition for the allowance of claims, and the necessary averments, the oath of the claimants, which must accompany each petition, and the notices and statements which must be appended.

[Singed] A. O. ALDIS,
J. B. HOWELL,
ORANGE FERRISS,
Commissioners of Claims.

General Sirum, of Indianapolis, is to be appointed Supervising Inspector of Steamboats.

The very latest dispatch says that General Vinoy's staff, all the troops of the line and the entire force of gens d'armes have retired to the left bank of the Seine, leaving the National Guard to restore order on the right bank.

The insurgents, after a short trial, executed General Lecomte and Clanent Thomas. The shops are closed and the omnibusses ceased running.

Synopsis of the Weather Report for the past Twenty-four Hours.—The low barometer Saturday evening on the South Atlantic coast has moved Eastward into the ocean, with brisk winds. Clearing up weather has prevailed there during the day. A comparatively high barometer, with pretty clear weather, has generally prevailed East of the lower Mississippi and the lower lakes. An area of low barometer which was indicated by reports received late last evening West of Missouri, has developed into a storm centre in that region. The barometer is now falling rapidly from Lake Michigan to Arkansas, and to Minnesota, with heavy snow in the latter State. The temperature has risen very rapidly from Indiana to Alabama. Fresh and gentle winds have been generally experienced to-day, occasionally increased to brisk on the lakes.

Fair weather is indicated for Monday on Atlantic coast. Cloudy weather on Gulf and lakes, with brisk winds. The storm centre will probably pass over Illinois.

The Southern Democratic members of Congress caucused, but took no action. They will await action of general caucus of party.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The cotton movement is heavy and in excess of last year, although not up to the figures of last week. The receipts are over 34,000 bales less than last week, but still very large for the season, and show a crop of over 4,000,000 bales. Receipts at all ports for the week were 102,484, against 136,533 last week, 126,935 previous week, 136,661 bales three weeks since. Total receipts since September 3,153,517 against 2,303,872 for the corresponding period of the previous year, showing an increase of 840,645 in favor of the previous year. Exports from all parts for the week 103,600 against 94,827 for the same week last year. Total exports for the expired portion of the cotton year 2,070,327 against 1,402,940 for the same time last year. Stock at all ports 644,882 against 499,197 for the same time last year. Stock in Liverpool 804,000 against 295,000 last year. American cotton afloat for Great Britain 382,000 against 320,000 last year. Amount of Indian cotton afloat for Europe 166,000 against 129,734 last year.

The weather in the South during the week has been generally warm, with less rain. In some quarters high water has interfered with movements of cotton.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, March 19.—The liberal Republicans, who are to arrange the city nominations, have resolved against high tariff. And declare that the safety of the Republican party demands on a reformation in the civil service. They also protest against the President's interference in Senate committees, and also his interference in the affairs of the States. They are opposed to the renomination of Grant and denounce the removal of Sumner.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 19.—Events of the most unfortunate character have taken place in Paris and every hour are becoming more grave.

At midnight on Friday, in pursuance of Thiers' proclamation, a detachment of troops and gens d'armes were sent to occupy the position of the insurgents in Montmartre. A considerable number of cannon were removed and some 400 prisoners captured. In the morning, the national guards, of Belleville and Montmartre, with many unarmed soldiers of the line, arrived on the scene and released the prisoners. The purpose of the insurgents is still indefinite, but the crowd in Montmartre and Belleville, however are unanimous in their clamour against the Bordeaux Government. They demand the immediate dissolution of the assembly and the reelection of a new body which shall set in Paris. At six o'clock on Saturday the agitation and uncertainty continued. The troops have been withdrawn from the faubourgs where the people seem excited and hostile. Startling events, connected with the facts of this morning, have become known: General Faron was surrounded by the mob in Montviair, but the troops charged bayonets taking the barricades and finally succeeded in cutting their way out. But General Lecomte and others were not so fortunate. They were abandoned by their men and made prisoners by the rioters. General Patricula was wounded.

Thiers' proclamation concludes with these words: "After this morning we shall proceed to inforce peace at all hazards."

2:30 P. M.—Thiers has issued a proclamation appealing to the reasonable and patriotic citizens of Paris to preserve order. He says he is informed that the malcontents of Montmartre have planted guns to demolish the dwellings of their fellow-citizens. He declares that by such acts the Republic is fatally compromised.

Veinery has planted cordons of troops around Montmartre, and the sentinels prevent all persons from ascending the hill. The guards were soon surrounded by the people who demanded to know why the Government distrusted the people. The soldiers, when asked whether they intended to fire on the people, made no reply. Soon a general fraternization occurred, the citizens were allowed to withdraw the mitrailleuses which garded the approaches and ascend the hill of Montmartre. Companies of soldiers on the summit fraternized with the National Guards, who still held the cannon. As additional troops arrived the people shouted to them to reverse arms, which order was obeyed. At 10 o'clock the National Guards again took the ground and prevented unarmed persons from ascending the hill.

A serious conflict occurred in Place Pigalle. A Lieutenant of Chasseurs, while endeavoring to disengage his horse from a crowd, drew his saber, he was pulled from his horse and killed, a melee followed, the soldiers abandoned the posts and distributed cartridges among the people. The artillerymen allowed the people to remove the mitrailleuses. The gens d'armes alone remained faithful, but they were too few to be effective, and were withdrawn at 11 o'clock. Many battalions of the National Guard marched into Montmartre fully organized, shouting vive la Republique. The district then was wholly in the possession of the Nationals. The soldiers having deserted, and not a gen d'arme or a regular was visible. The National Guard amply supplied catridges, and appeared determined to retain the cannon and hold the position.

MONDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—In the House, Butler got his Ku-Klux bill in. Referred to the Judiciary Committee, when appointed. This buries it.

The Senate is discussing the Ku-Klux bill.

The Committee on Elections has agreed, by a vote of 4 to 2, to seat Blodgett and Goldthwaite upon prima facie evidence, and will consider its merits hereafter. Hill and Thurman, of the Committee, will oppose the seating of Blodgett when the question comes up in the Senate.

The news from Paris states that Vinoy with the gens d'armes withdrew to the left bank of the Seine, leaving the National Guards to maintain order on the right bank.

The general tenor indicates that the National Guards and insurgents fraternize.

Two Generals were abandoned by the troops and executed by the insurgents.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Mach 20.—The World's special, dated Paris, Saturday night, gives the following account:

At a council of war yesterday, Thiers presiding, it was resolved to attack the insurgents. At two o'clock on the 17th, Chasseurs, with three regiments of the line, advanced on Montmartre; another body on Lavalette; and another on Belleville.

The troops were successful at Montmartre and Lavalette, but at Bellville the people refuse to allow the troops to enter Rue de Paris. The gens d'arms charged, but were compelled to retreat under the volleys from the insurgents.

At Lavelette the troops fraternized with the insurgents.

General Vinoy was hissed and pelted at Montmartre. Gen. Palladine is prisoner at the insurgent headquarters. Gen. Lecompte has been sentenced to death. Gen. Sunville has been killed, and many gens d'arms killed.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, March 20.—Three Democrats, having received their certificates, have departed for Congress.

CUBA.

HAVANA, March 20.—The tobacco has been destroyed in portions of the Vuelta and Abajo districts.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 20.—The Times' Paris special says that the respectable Parisians are stupified. General Thomas's last words was, "cowards." He fell at the third discharge. Thiers is firm but full of grief. Vinoy's indignation is boundless.

The Telegraph's special says, Vinoy has been mobbed. The mob is virtually in possession of the city. Only the wineshops are open, and drunkenness is rampant. The women are all armed.

General Chanzy, on his arrival in Paris, was arrested by the Montmartists, and is said to be shot. All persons of prominence are flying from Paris.

The bodies of the murdered Generals were much mutilated.

A Versailles dispatch says, the Government has determined to maintain its authority.

The Official Journal says: "The Government has been indulgent, but it must rise and punish assassins, otherwise the whole people would be their accomplices."

It is stated that these terrible events have caused a halt in the German army's homeward march.

Bad Legislation—The Homestead Act and Crop Liens.

There is nothing more demoralizing to a people than the enactment of bad laws. Bad legislation leads in its train lawlessness and social disorder. Thrift and prosperity are the fruits of wholesome laws, justly and faithfully administered. That sort of legislation which protects one class at the expense of another, which, under the plea of mercy offers a premium to infamy, will demoralize any people.

Such, we regret to say, has been the legislation of our State for the last few years. The debtor has been encouraged by wicked legislation to trample under foot every moral obligation. The creditor has been treated rather as an outlaw than as a citizen entitled to the respect or sympathy of courts or juries. Conventions and Legislatures of every political stripe have ignored that good old book that makes the fulfillment of a contract a sacred and divine obligation. It could hardly have been otherwise, when many of the parties to these acts were making themselves the beneficiaries of their foul proceedings. Certainly the press and the honest masses of the country ought to unite in one grand effort to obliterate from the statutes of our beloved State, all homestead acts and other laws that open the door to rascality and conflict with the payment of ones honest obligations. The act (suggested, as we have been told, by a wealthy grocer) permitting grocery merchants to take crop liens, is another act that our next Legislature should look after. It was doubtless passed in good faith, but experience has demonstrated that the cruel and exorbitant demands of the greedy grocery merchant have been productive of no little mischief. Then, why should these Shylocks enjoy a monopoly not enjoyed by the dry goods merchant, the smith or the planter himself? Our observation is, that as a class they contribute less to schools, railroads and other enterprises than any other. Besides, the repeal of this law would force the planter to raise his own supplies, and thus make him independent of the Western farmer. The lessees of the State Road could not bestow a greater favor upon the planters of Georgia than to increase the freight on all provisions brought over their line. The animadversions upon the President of said road, by some newspaper correspondents, for pursuing this policy is, to say the least of it, illtimed and out of place. FARMER.

☞ The lectures for women, delivered under the auspices of the University of Cambridge, England, have been found to meet a want, the existence of which was long suspected, and is now proved. The number attending the lectures is forty, but this would be larger if there were suitable accommodations provided. What is most noteworthy is that the lectures, which require severe study, are well attended.

☞ Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell has settled in London to a good practice; has appeared several times in public; has been denounced by a portion of the press for writing a pamphlet addressed to the poor, exhorting them to stop having such remorselessly large families, and is soon to deliver a lecture at St. George's Hall.

☞ The Wednesday's issue of the Mobile Register announces its sale by Colonel W. D. Mann to Mr. Isaac Donovan. The fact is not stated, but we hope and presume Colonel John Forsyth will still continue in charge of its editorial columns.

WHEN the blood becomes impoverished by improper digestion, or there is not sufficient food taken into the stomach to meet the requirements of the system, the skin becomes pallid, the lips and tongue turn almost white, and the face assumes a wax-like appearance. This is a sure sign that the stream of life needs enriching, that the blood is impoverished. How is this poverty of the blood, of which emaciation, debility and nerrous relaxation are the ordinary symptoms, to be remedied? The only way would be to invigorate the stomach with Lippman's Great German Bitters, and it will reinforce the blood with nutritious particles.

ETIWAN GUANOS, SOLUBLE MANURES,

—AND—

SULPHURIC ACID,

MANUFACTURED AT THE

ETIWAN WORKS,

CHARLESTON, S. C.,

BY THE

Sulphuric Acid and Superphosphate Co.

THE new well known ETIWAN GUANO is manufactured from the Native Bone Phosphates of South Carolina. These Phosphates, in their natural state, are insoluble, and require to be ground to powder, and made Soluble by Sulphuric Acid. This Company have now in operation the largest Sulphuric Acid Chambers at the South, and are, therefore, able to manufacture at the lowest rates, the highest grade of Fertilizer; it being clear that the greater the proportion of Soluble Phosphate which any Fertilizer contains, the less the quantity required per acre. In order to make the Fertilizer complete, Ammonia and Potash in sufficient quantities are added. With these views the Company manufacture and offer for sale

ETIWAN GUANOS,

Warranted to contain from 15 to 20 PER CENT. OF DISSOLVED BONE PHOSPHATE OF LIME and from 2 to 4½ per cent. of AMMONIA, with a sufficient addition of PERUVIAN GUANO and POTASH, to adapt it to all crops. Price $55 per ton, cash; on time, $60 per ton, and interest 7 per cent. per annum.

DISSOLVED BONE,

Of high grade, suitable for Manufacturers or for Planters, being in itself an excellent Fertilizer, and especially adapted for compost. As large quantities of Sulphuric Acid are used to dissolve the Phosphate, this will be found a cheap and convenient way to transport that material. The grade furnished will be from 10 to 20 per cent. Dissolved Bone Phosphate. Price $30 per ton, cash. On time, $45, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum. Still higher grades will be furnished to order at additional price per centage.

Compound Acid Phosphate,

Specially prepared for compositing with cotton seed and other plantation manures. Price $25 per ton cash; on time $40, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum.

GROUND BONE,

At mush lower rates, consisting simply of the Native Bone Phosphates ground to powder. Price $20 per ton, cash. On time, $22 and interest at 7 per cent. per annum.

Agents, No. 14 Adger's Wharf,
CHARLESTON, S. C.

N. B.—The percentage of Dissolved Bone Phosphate of Lime, and Ammonia in all the Etiwans, is ascertained at the Works, by their Chemist, before delivery. Should any purchaser be dissatisfied, he may return average samples of any purchase, within thirty (30) days after delivery, and they will be analyzed anew and any deficiency in the percentage guaranteed will be made good to him by the Company.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:
TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 1871.

PERSONAL.—We had a call yesterday from that pleasant gentleman and staunch Democrat, Colonel J. A. Stewart, of Rome.

☞ Since the proclamation of the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, President Grant says but one State, New Jersey, has ratified it.

☞ The New York Tribune's Washington correspondent says, in regard to Blaine's punishment of Butler:

The general testimony was, that for many a year so scathing an attack has not been made in the House.

THE ORLEANS DYNASTY AND THE FRENCH THRONE.—A dispatch from London states that "the Count of Paris renounces any intention on his part, to compete with the other princes of the royal house of France for the throne."

☞ Funny typographical errors sometimes occur. Greeley copies an editorial of Forney on the New Hampshire election. The jokes are numerous on the mistakes over Greeley's bad writing. But Greeley gets even when his compositors make out Forney as using "pus. lic councils" for public councils.

HISTORIC ALLEGORY.—The St. Patrick's Day procession in New York on St. Patrick's Day, had twenty-five thousand men in line most all native. A novel feature was a company representative of the men who attended Shane Oneil in his memorable visit to Queen Elizabeth. They wore saffron colored robes, helmets, long flowing locks, and carried immense battle-axes.

Petroleum.

The annual product of the oil regions of Pennsylvania, for the last twelve years, is as follows, viz.:

	Bbls.		Bbls.
1859	82,009	1865	2,497,700
1860	500,000	1866	3,597,700
1861	2,113,600	1867	3,347,300
1862	3,056,699	1868	3,715,700
1863	2,611,300	1869	4,215,100
1864	3,116,109	1870	3,650,000

That Storm.

The big rain storm, near Memphis, seems to have been a destructive one. The water at all points in 200 miles, rose to an unprecedented height and swept every thing. The damage to railroads was immense. All of the roads leading to Memphis are badly injured. On the Henderson and Nashville road every bridge was swept off for fifty miles. The track of the Vicksburg and Jackson road was four feet under water.

The loss in Tennessee, North Alabama and Mississippi, will amount to millions.

American Missions.

Grant has brought our missions to a great discount. It is in remembrance how the English mission went begging, and is still in the same fix.

The Brazilian mission seems to be in a like condition. Grant is trying to mollify Missouri by picking a Minister from that State. But distinguished Missourians seem loath to touch it. General Loan and Governor McClurg have both declined it. It is still in the market. These gentlemen are probably too poor to pay the price.

French Folks at Home.

John G. Saxe, the poet-wit of this country, lectured in Louisville on the subject at the head of this article. His lecture was witty. He made the point that Providence had divided the human family into men, women, children and Frenchmen.

In illustration of the French love of dancing, he quoted the saying of the fine old lady in Ash Wednesday, "We can't eat after twelve; but, thank God, we can dance all night."

As an illustration of French wit, Mr. Saxe told the following anecdote:

> Several gentlemen, not long since, a Frenchman among the number, were discussing General Ben Butler, each expressing his own views of that illustrious personage. Said one, an admirer of the man, "You may say what you please of General Butler, but he did one good thing while at New Orleans; by his wise sanitary measures, he saved that city from the plague of yellow fever during his reign there." "My good fellow," responded the Frenchman, "do you not believe in a God? How can you talk so? Do you think the Almighty would suffer one city to be plagued at the same time by two plagues, Butler and the yellow fever? No! no! C'est impossible! C'est impossible!" [Prolonged laughter and applause.]

Mr. Sumner's Successor.

The Portland Advertiser (Republican) says: "On the records of the House of Representatives may still be read the following resolution passed on the 30th of April 1862, three months after Mr. Cameron resigned his seat in the Cabinet:

Resolved, That Simon Cameron, late Secretary of war, by investing Alexander Cummings with the control of large sums of public money and authority to purchase military supplies without restriction, without requiring from him any guaranty for the faithful performance of his duties, when the services of competent public officers were available, and by involving the government in a vast number of contracts with persons not legitimately engaged in the business pertaining to the subject-matter of such contracts, especially in the purchase of arms for future delivery, has adopted a policy highly injurious to the public service, and deserves the censure of the House.

"This resolution passed a body at that time almost two-thirds Republican, by the decisive vote of 79 to 45, and this is the man who is put forward to supplant Mr. Sumner as Chairman of the most important committee of the Senate. This proceeding, it is perfectly understood, is dictated by the President, who unquestionably has made a great mistake."

Blodgett's State Road Joke.

That big joke of Foster Blodgett's about the State Road still keeps the Treasury grinning. Those little items of debt accumulated during his remarkable administration of that fine piece of State property, still roll in. The Treasurer has paid up to date over Two HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, of these unimportant debts. And still they come. The sluice broadens.

Ah, that was a big joke. How funny Governor Bullock must feel over it. How it must feed that smile of his, made classic and immortal by Nemesis.

Blodgett was Bullock's man Friday—his appointee—his cub—his representative—his railroad bantling—his selected custodian of the State's great railway interest of millions. What an honor to his administration! What a lustre to his care of the State's property!

That year of railroad management will never know a parallel. Governor Bullock can safely consign his administration to the verdict of history upon that one luminous episode alone, with the absolute certainty of a damnation that can know no possible redemption.

Blodgett took the road flourishing. He had it a year. Its immense receipts went where "the woodbine twineth." It ran down so as to need, according to Blodgett's piteous claim, a half million, to put it in working order. It left a half a million of ugly debts for the State to pay.

And yet Governor Bullock sat in the Executive chair, and saw this unequalled and staring mismanagement and peculation, and never raised a finger or uttered a syllable to stop it. He must have sat on his oath of office.

Well, it is a huge joke! Blodgett and his Excellency have got the grin on the people now. And a big grin it is—one of the sort that makes the flesh crawl, and starts the profane apparatus to activity.

These Radicals are and always were, jolly and unapproachable jokers—particularly with other people's property.

Well, well. Let us take it philosophically. We will meet these jokers at New Hampshire some day. Jokes like other things change.

That Letter of Butler's.

We find in the Washington Chronicle, in full, that letter of Butler's that evoked the scathing that Speaker Blaine gave him. It is too long to be reproduced. It contains matter, however, worthy of noting. Blaine truthfully denounced it as mendacious and mean.

The most remarkable declaration of the letter is the tribute that he pays to Southern order, and the open testimony he bears against the very state of Ku-Klux turbulence that he and his ilk are partisanly seeking national legislation to ostensibly correct, but really to create in aid of prolongation of Radical power.

But read the extraordinary paragraph and heed its import:

> I fully believe that I can go anywhere through every portion of the South, alone and unattended, and, a fortiori, when at the head of a Congressional committee of investigation, without personal harm or insult. Therefore, when Republicans should claim in the canvass that it was necessary to maintain the Republican party in power to have peace at the South and protect our loyal friends there, they would be answered on every Democratic hustings, "You are not to be believed when you say that the laws cannot be executed at the South and men's lives and property are in danger there, when you see that General Butler, the man who hanged one of these rebels' brethren; the man who brought New Orleans into subjection; the man who is more hated and vilified in the South than any other, can go through it untouched and unharmed." I have no intention of aiding the Democratic cause and breaking down the Republican party by furnishing in my own person any such argument with no countervailing good.

It will be seen that Butler, who states that he is more hated in the South than any other for deserved atrocities, acknowledges that he can go anywhere in the South safely unattended. And because the South is so orderly that he can do this, when he could not do it if the South was as turbulent as is claimed as the basis for Ku-Klux legislation, he won't give the South this chance to vindicate her lawfulness, in order that that utterly unnecessary legislation may be forced upon the South.

In other words, this man, while owning that the South will give the best practical proof of its good order in his own certain experience, openly refuses to be a party to such a proof, simply because he don't want the proof, but instead desires to establish a falsehood upon which to base unneeded and wicked interference in our State matters by the national government for the benefit of the Radical party.

If this isn't characteristic and a specimen of Radicalism, it will be hard to find it. And it comes properly from Butler. We say in all frankness, that a more shameless confession could not have been made by even this bad man.

He owns the very order he is seeking to disprove, and refuses to investigate the facts because they would establish the falsity of his partisan charges. He openly acknowledges that the truth will break down the Republican party and aid the Democracy, and hence his testimony shall never help to maintain the truth.

But we call the attention of those journals that are hounding on the crusade at the North to this gratuitous testimony of Butler to the forbearance and lawfulness that pervades the entire South.

Even he, with all his crimes and the huge catalogue of Southern wrongs to engender Southern hate, says he believes he could go anywhere over the South unharmed.

If he can be safe, what loyalist is in danger?

The French Troubles.

The anarchy existing in France, is pefectly natural, and one might with truth say inevitable. That nation has emerged from a great war badly thrashed and dissatisfied, and its goverment of twenty years overthrown, and upon its ruins a mere hasty experimental structure built, that has neither intrinsic strength, homogenious elements or popular confidence and respect.

The people are impoverished as well as anergy, discontented and humiliated; the country is filled with disbanded soldiers fresh from the discipline of camps and the license of battle; thousands of ambitious and restless leaders hope for power in the reorganization. Could there be a state of things more conducive to anarchy? And this mercurial people has ever had a native proclivity to political disorder.

The reports convey an alarming state of things. The new government has acted timidly and with spasmodic grit. The insurgents have steadily and boldly persisted in their insurrectionary purposes until they have developed a formidable power. What this unhappy condition may lead to cannot be seen, unless it is the preliminary to the restoration of the imperial dynasty of Napoleon.

The despotic hand of a strong one-man government can alone restore order. Now is the opportune moment for a Cæsar or a Bonaparte to grasp the reins and seize the power. No greater blessing could happen to this torn and unhappy people than the strong rule of a powerful tyranny for a while, to subdue internicine disquiet and check the mad mob. This violence will not long continue until the people will welcome gratefully a master to enjoy exemption from rapine and turbulence.

When it is known that the three hundred and fifty thousand prisoners of the original army are returning home, most of whom are true to Napoleon, that the Generals of both the Empire and the Republic are royalist and mostly friends to the Napoleonic dynasty; and that this element wisely used in the present troubles can become the controlling power, it is not at all improbable that Louis Napoleon's restoration may be welcomed by all parties as the solution of the problem of internal strife. The old saying that "the Empire is peace" may prove a reality.

Let the issue be as it may, none but can compassionate with the present unhappy condition of poor France.

San Domingo.

The telegraph tells us that the San Domingo Commissioners will report in favor of annexation. Of course! They were sent there for that purpose, and they are simply doing a pre-alloted duty. The New York Herald sums up the matter very cleverly. That paper has had voluminous correspondence, containing full particulars of the status of the island. It sums up its conclusions very practically as follows, and we opine very correctly:

> San Domingo is a rich and prolific country naturally, and for the most part as healthy as any of the Antilles, particularly on the north side facing the Atlantic Ocean, though the climate is hotter generally than that of Cuba, and though there are exceptional unhealthy localities. But it has hardly any cultivation and comparatively little commerce. The coffee and other products exported are obtained from the old stocks now growing wild. There are no railroads or telegraphs or anything indicating progress or industry.
>
> On the contrary, both sections of the island—both the so-called republics of San Domingo and Hay i—are declining and going back to a barbaric condition. Bountiful nature supplies the wants of the people as far as food goes, such as it is, without labor, or with very little—it gives the banana, plantain, cocoanut, sugar cane, yams, wild hogs and other things which either grow from the remnants of former cultivation or spontaneous from the earth. As for the rest—for clothing and other things—the people are content with very little or none.
>
> In its present condition then, San Domingo would be of little or no value to the United States. Could we improve it? All wealth is the product of labor, and without that San Domingo would be valueless. The present population of the part proposed to be annexed is little over a hundred thousand, sparsely spread over a large territory. It is doubtful if even this small population could be trained to industry, and if it could the result would not be great. Where, then, is the population to come from to make San Domingo productive and valuable? Some of the Commission imagine that white laborers would go to the island and would work there.
>
> It is not likly that white people would go there to till the soil, and if they could be induced to leave the temperate zone, and the advantages of civilization, they could not cultivate the earth in that climate. People of European race never have tilled the soil in the tropics, and never could for any length of time. Nature intended this work for the colored races. It would be a delusion and cruel to induce white people to go to San Domingo as field laborers, for their health must break down, and the race become enfeebled and degenerate.

THAT ROME KU-KLUX.

The Matter Explained—Governor Bullock Pays $7,000 on a Swindle.

From the Rome Courier.]

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION of the 15th contains the following bit of most extraordinary news:

A HUGE HAUL.

Yesterday Governor Bullock gave a warrant to James S. Wyatt for SEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS for the apprehension of Wm. N. Keeley, James Epps, and John Parton, claimed to be marauders, whose apprehension was advertised by Executive proclamation dated the 15th February, 1871.

This is, as we understand, that Rome case that the Rome papers denounce so much.

Will our Rome contemporaries please take this matter in hand and vindicate it?

In answer to the request of THE CONSTITUTION, we have to give the following statement of facts:

During the sitting of the last term of the Chattooga Superior Court, three men wearing a calico disguise, went to the house of a gentleman named John H. Hutchings, residing in Chattooga county, with the evident purpose of robbing him, as it was known that a considerable amount of money had been paid to him a few days before. Fortunately, Mr. Hutchings happened to be awake when the rogues made their appearance, and he being a good old reb, and no ways loth to take a hand in shooting when it was to be done, which fact these rascals well knew, they wisely concluded to change their intentions, and instead of demanding his money, they called for whisky. Mr. Hutchings, wishing to inveigle them into a betrayal of their identity, brought out his whisky jug, and the exploiters soon became familiar under its jolly influence, and in an unguarded moment, raised their masks and revealed to Mr. Hutchings the faces of three men of notoriously bad character, who had been in the Union army, and were dropped in the country after the war.

After leaving the house of Mr. Hutchings, the robbers visited several negro houses in the neighborhood and committed a number of petty robberies upon the unoffending and frightened negroes.

The next day Mr. Hutchings presented the matter to the Grand Jury, then in session, and a true bill was found against the parties. A warrant for their arrest was issued and placed in the hands of James S. Wyatt, who was in attendance upon the court as Deputy Sheriff. Mr. Wyatt in accordance with his simple duty as an officer, for which he was paid the lawful fees, proceeded to make the arrest. In doing so he found upon their premises the disguises worn by the robbers upon the night in question.

The parties were immediately put upon trial. The robbed negroes identifying the masks found upon the premises of the rogues as those worn by the robbers, and Mr. Hutchings identifying them as the ones worn by the parties who visited his house, of course conviction followed, and the robbers were sentenced by his Honor, Judge Harvey, to seven years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

No one thought, in the least, about Butler's Ku-Klux proclamation, or dreamed that he would be such a miserable fool as to order its payment to the deputy Sheriff for making the arrest; and when we read the paragraph in THE CONSTITUTION, calling our attention to the fact of his paying seven thousand dollars for the arrest of the parties, we must confess that we were utterly confounded at this exhibition of the Governor's reckless and criminal extravagance.

We have not the patience to comment upon it. It is one of those acts of infamy that is beyond the province of patient discussion. We can only give the facts and let the outraged people of the State do the cursing.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Secretary Fish has received a telegram from Minister Washburne, dated Paris March 17, which says: "The National Guard Committee are masters of Paris. The departments of the Interior, Justice and Police have been occupied by the insurgents. Generals Vinoy, Tamonas, and Lecompte have been murdered by the troops. The election for a new Assembly commences to-morrow.

All the members of the Thiers Goverment have gone to Versailles. I follow with the whole department corps.

(Signed.) WASHBURNE.

Confirmed—B. S. Beauregard, Collector for the Second Louisiana District; Henry S. Glover, Assessor for the Second Georgia District.

In the House Butler's Ku-Klux bill was read, which occupied three quarters of an hour.

Many bills were introduced including two amnesty bills.

A resolution of the Senate was amended making the committee seven Senators and fourteen Representatives, to report at the next session. The vote was 127 to 60.

A concurrent resolution to adjourn on the 23d passed.

In the Senate Bayard spoke all day.

The Committee on elections reported in favor of seating Goldthwait and Blodgett, and will consider their rights hereafter. No action. Adjourned.

Synopsis of the Weather Reports for the past Twenty-four hours.—Clear weather has prevailed on the Gulf and west of the Mississippi. It has gradually clouded up along the Atlantic coast, with light rains from Virginia to Connecticut. The high pressure still continues on the coast of Maine, but has diminished rapidly on the middle Atlantic and lower lakes. The lowest pressure has moved from Lake Michigan eastward, and is now between Lakes Ontario and Huron. The northeasterly gale on Lake Superior has abated, and fresh northeasterly winds prevail there. Brisk southerly winds are reported on Lakes Ontario and Erie, and brisk westerly winds on Lake Michigan.

Threatening weather, with fresh and brisk winds, are indicated for Tuesday, North and East of Virginia; cloudy weather on the south Atlantic and the Gulf and upper lakes.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, March 20.—The Neuse River Paper Mills were burnt last night. Loss $50,000. Insured for $15,000. Burnt by an incendiary.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLENS, March 20.—Steamboat Rose Franks, with a cargo of seven hundred bales, were burned at Trumbull's Island. No lives lost. The cargo was a total loss.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, March 20.—In the tornado in St. Clair county, on Tuesday, twenty farm houses, fences and trees were prostrated

FLORIDA.

KEY WEST, March 20.—Brig Aquilla, from Havana for Queenstown, was bilged on Pickles reef.

FRANCE.

PARIS, March 20.—No resistance was made to the insurgents.

Generals Lecompte and Thomas were executed by order of Ricotti Garibaldi, who directed the insurrection.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 20.—Napoleon left Willhelmshoe Sunday. He was escorted to the station by a guard of honor, and arrived at Dover to-day, where the immense crowd awaiting him cheered him enthusiastically.

Thiers' government contemplates going to Toura.

The Germans decline to interfere.

A report from Paris says that the gens d' armes collected from the provinces by Vinoy, have deserted and joined the insurgents.

Bark Cornwall was sunk by a collision with steamer Himalays. Eleven were drowned.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The World's special cable dispatch, from Paris to-day, says, the insurgents hold the Hotel de Ville, Palais de Justice, Tuileries and Place Vendome.

Complete apathy is displayed by the Bourgeois. No resistance is made to the insurgents.

The Generals were shot in a garden in the Rue des Rosiers. Theomas resisted vigorously, but Garibaldi ordered him held against a wall while his body was riddled with bullets. Lecompte died with the utmost coolness, smoking a cigar and refusing a bandage over his eyes.

Many other executions have occurred.

The government has telegraphed for 30,000 men at Camp Saratory to come to Paris.

The Prussians of St. Denis will enter Paris, if the garison is increased beyond 40,000.

The city is full of the Bonapartist's agents. Chevro, Conti, Roahl and Regnier have been seen. The insurgents have received three francs daily, for some days past, which is supposed to be furnished by these agents. In every part of the leading thoroughfares of the city barricades have been thrown up by the insurgents. They have gained in strength since morning, which makes them more defiant than ever. General Chanzy was sent, with a large body of troops, to Montmartre to suppress the rebellion, but the troops, for most part, went over to the insurgents. General Chanzy was made a prisoner and taken to the garden of Rue des Rosiers Montmartre, where the central revolutionary committee were sitting, and after a short trial was shot.

The regulars fraternize with the mob everywhere, and all army discipline seem gone, and mob law is triumphant, and the city will be given up to pillage unless more determined measures are taken by the Government.

Immense numbers of insurgents have left for Versailles, with the intention of endeavoring to overawe the Assembly, which will sit there to-morrow.

General Duval is at the head of the insurgents, and is leading them on in their mad career.

The 81st and 126th regiments were the first to join the insurgents.

It is reported that the government has fled from Versailles.

FRANCE.

ROUEN, March 20.—The people here are deeply excited over the news from Paris, but no outward demonstrations have been made.

The Nobilities are prohibited from crossing to the right bank of the Seine.

It is rumored that the German forces will reoccupy their former posts if the disorder in Paris continues.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 20, 6 P. M.—In Paris, this morning, the situation was unchanged. The National Guards, in obedience to orders of the Central Republican Committee, have taken up positions in various quarters of the city, meeting with no resistance. The majority of the National Guard are passive and quiet. Preparations are making at the voting places throughout the city for the Communal elections ordered by the Republican Committee. According to the apportionment, there is one representative to be chosen from every twenty thousand voters. The elections will be held on Wednesday instead of Tuesday, if the Assembly declare the situation unendurable.

Rumors of every description are in circulation, one says the Nationals intend to march on Versailles.

Another Assembly will remove to Orleans and are about to appoint General Faidherbe Dictator.

All the papers at the Prefecture of police have been destroyed by the Nationals.

1:30 P. M.—Galignis reports that overtures have been made to the Government by the Montmartre insurgents, and that La Biche, Minister of Interior, has been fully empowered to grant liberal but legitimate concessions.

1:30 P. M.—The Etoile Belge has advices denying that negotiations have been opened with the insurgents in Paris, and represents that the rioters are in full possession of the city.

The windows of Hotel de Ville are crowded with armed nationals.

Chassepots are being distributed among the people, and the cry of the mob is, "a Versaillie." The center of the city, however, remains undisturbed.

☞ "Akerman, until made Attorney General," says the Boston Advertiser, "was the most utterly unknown man in the United States." With the single exception of the mysterious individual who inflicted the historical blow upon the late William Patterson, we believe he really was.—Courier-Journal.

☞ A Galesburg farmer, whose pew rent was raised to twenty-five dollars, exclaimed: "Great Cæsar, here's a nice state of affairs—the Gospel being up and pork going down. What's to become of us?"

☞ Three years ago, the New Hampshire election excited more than usual interest. General Grant had been reluctantly accepted by the Republicans as their candidate for President, but subject to the result of the New Hampshire election. It was agreed if the State went Republican, Grant should be nominated; but if not, not. Mr. Thurlow Weed at that time was a power in politics. He gave $50,000 of his own money, and raised a large amount among his friends. At his suggestion the war trumpet was blown, Sickles, Howard, Chamberlain, and all the military politicians, were sent to stump the State, and with Thurlow Weed's cash, they just succeeded in staving off a Democratic victory. Grant was nominated and elected, and Sickles was rewarded with the Spanish mission.—N. Y. World.

☞ There is a story going around about a New Orleans printer, who declined to go out and drink when asked, put placed the money he would have spent, had he gone with the boys, in a savings bank, and how in five years it amounted to untold millions. Then he didn't have any wife. We tried that once for a year, quitting smoking, and placing money that would have been used in a bureau drawer. One day we wanted to go out with the boys, and went for the money, and it was gone, and in its place was some new dress patterns, and bonnets and things. She looked calm enough, but we began to smoke again.

☞ At Memphis they are trying to frighten niggers from committing burglaries, by telling a fearful story about how a colored man broke into a house and was struck speechless. Since the niggers found their speechless friend carried off a thousand dollars' worth of property, they don't scare worth a cent.

☞ Mrs. Yelverton expects to make the farm she has purchased in Missouri, a model one. She intends to devote herself, it is said, to raising stock, and is to import cattle from England for that purpose.

THE famous Alderney bull Jupiter is offered for sale at Charleston by Chapeau & Hedfron.

THERE is a good supply of coal at the various yards in the city.

THE Lydia Thompson Troupe are now in Charleston, and will visit our city soon.

TEN stock cars loaded with mules, beef cattle and hogs arrived in the city yesterday.

MAJOR JOHN F. KISER returned from an extended trip to the North yesterday.

J. J. WILLIAMS & Co. have in store an excellent quality of lime from South Alabama. Give them a call.

THERE was a considerable moving on the lower part of Peachtree street, yesterday afternoon. Quite a number of inmates leaving one house.

MR. D. FECHTER and Ed. Mercer have formed a copartnership in the brewing business, under the name of Fechter & Mercer.

WALLACE & FOWLER sell at four o'clock this evening, the Jourdan property on Marietta street, beyond the Fair Grounds.

MASONIC.—Regular communication of Georgia Lodge No. 99 this evening at 7½ o'clock. The fraternity invited.

LARGE quantities of lumber arrive in the city daily, and generally it is immediately put into use.

COLUMBUS HUGHES, well know in the city, died on the 3d instant, in Los Angelos, California, of pulmonary disease.

THE Alarm of fire last night was caused by the burning of some shavings in a carpenters shop on Hunter street. No damage done.

AMONG the noted arrivals at the Kimball House yesterday, were C. F. Lewis, W. F. Herring, J. W. Bones, M. J. O'Brien and H. B. Plant, of Augusta, and R. Ould, jr., of Richmond, Virginia.

DR. J. M. JOHNSON and Dr. S. H. Stout were thrown out of a buggy yesterday evening and slightly bruised. We are pleased to know that their injuries are not serious.

GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of Richmond, Va., was married on the 15th inst., to Miss Annie H. Lockett the belle of Mecklenburg. Miss Lockett is a sister of Mrs. C. H. Strong of this city.

THE Skating Rink is again in full blast. Let those now skate who never skated before; and those who always skate now skate the more; and they shall "have the floor."

THE Grand Counsellor of the Good Templars, C. W. Hancock, visits the Gate City Lodge tonight. A great number of the fraternity are expected to be present.

MESSRS. MURPHY & MERRIAN have in their lumber yard a fine assortment of choice Southwestern lumber. They have also superior doors and sash, which are worthy general attention.

THE committee who went to Covington, Ky., to witness a trial of the Holly Water-works system, has returned, delighted with their investigations. An article on the subject prepared for this issue is crowded out.

THERE were fifteen cases before Mayor Hammond yesterday. Six of them for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Six for disturbing the peace; and three for keeping disorderly houses. The fines imposed amounted to $200.

MESSRS. WM. RICH & Co. are preparing to move into the new store that will soon be built by John H. James, on Whitehall street near the Railroad crossing.

They propose to sell out their present stock below cost.

MAJOR SPENCER, a few days ago, bought the McDaniel property, on the corner of Mitchell and Pryor streets for twelve thousand dollars.

He divided the lot into eight beautiful residence lots and sold them at a handsome profit.

MR. O. H. Jones returned to the city yesterday morning, having visited St. Louis and other Northwestern markets. Mr. J. brought with him over one hundred fine mules and horses. He informs us that he found stock bringing higher prices in the Western markets than he had anticipated.

WE are glad to see Judge Daniel Pittman at his post in the Ordinary's office, from New York. He returned Sunday morning. The Judge is in fine health and spirits, and has ascertained exactly how a jail should be constructed for economy, convenience, health and comfort.

Judge Pittman held the adjourned term of his court yesterday, and transacted the usual county business.

"Daisies pied and violets blue,
And lady-smocks all silver-white,
And cuckoo-buds of yellow hue,
Do paint the meadows with delight."

If the weather we are now having continues, it will not be long before our young people will be for picnics to Vining's, or seek in some boun ...ess contiguity of shade the sylvan spot where Flora reigns.

E. A. MCLAUGHLIN, late money-order clerk of the Atlanta Post-office, who left the city early in January last, was arrested in New York city a few days since, by Colonel C. H. Whitely, special detective of the United States Treasurer. Mr. McLaughlin reached the city yesterday morning, and was up before the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. The Grand Jury found a true bill against him for embezzlement, and his case will probably be before the Court Wednesday morning.

BUSINESS in the Justice Courts yesterday was very light. A colored man was up before Justice Spencer under a charge of larceny after trust delegated. After a hearing, the case was dismissed.

A colored boy William ——, was, with his mother before Judge Smith yesterday afternoon, the boy charged with larceny of watch and chain, valued at $167; also of a knife and six dollars in silver. After a hearing, both parties, the mother as receiver of the goods, were sent to jail in default of bond.

BANK NOTE DETECTOR AT SIGHT.—Mr. F. M. Rooks is a bank note detector at sight, and teaches his art so that it can be practiced with certainty, even by those who have not previously had any critical knowledge of paper money. The ...ouchers of banks and business houses such infallibility is invaluable, and few have attained it except at large expense of imposition. By Mr. Rooks' system of detection, the possessor is able alone to distinguish the genuine from the spurious by the general features of the note, without the aid of a magnifying glass, and such experience can be obtained by a few minutes' instructions. He has already a long list of subscribers, among whom are all of our banks, who speak of the system with unqualified favor. Here is a chance for every one to become his own bank note detector, and at a small cost of money and time. Mr. Rooks guarantees to give perfect satisfaction, or make no charge. He also gives a glass and Heath's Infallible National Bank Note Detector, published by authority of the Treasury Department, with his instructions as a banker.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA.—Alexander G. Murray, Esq., of Griffin, was appointed a United States Commissioner for the Northern District of Georgia.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against various parties charged with violation of the United States Internal Revenue laws.

George Sparks, convicted of distilling without paying the special tax, was sentenced to nine months imprisonment and to pay a fine of $1,000 and costs. The court appointed Col. W. H. Hulsey his attorney.

Verdict of not guilty was returned in the case of Benjamin Ray, charged with illicit distillation. Gen. Gartrell was appointed defendant's counsel by the court.

W. G. Hendricks, indicted for removing distilled spirits unlawfully. Verdict, not guilty. C. E. Broyles, Esq., was appointed defendant's counsel by the court.

DEGIVES,—The brilliant talents, youth, beauty and charming witchery of the Chapman sisters and the genuine humor of Bishop, with their exquisite powers of portrayal in burlesque, have never been underrated in our city, but have been rightly appreciated, consequently they always have good audiences.

We shall attempt no analysis of the performance of last night, our preoccupied space forbids it; and at best, we could only hope to reproduce the faintest of the emotions which the rendition of Bongh's comedy, entitled "Kind to a Fault," and the burlesque of "Much Ado About a Merchant of Venice," excited. As Frank Goldsworthy, in Kind to a Fault, Bishop was great. He is a comedian of the first water. A more comical phiz than Bishop can produce was never seen on the boards at DeGive's; and in all the tricks of the comic artist he is simply prefection. He convulses his audience with laughter and never permits a chasce to slip. Mrs. Chapman, is a good actress, and invariably sustains the part assigned her admirably, and there is never a weak point in her representation.

Months ago, the beauty, grace, youth and talent of Misses Blanche and Ella Chapman exhausted our adulatory adjectives, and they are more charming and fascinating than ever.

Perhaps of the two, Miss Blanche has improved more as an artiste, since their last visit to our city. She is a bright-eyed, petite, symmetrically formed, graceful young lady, as light as the air, as agile as a fawn, and very intelligent, causing one to feel magnetically all that her bewitching movements are designed to express.

Miss Ella looks as fresh, and her spirits as buoyant and lastic as when she first visited our city. She never appears so fancy-free as when yielding with inimitable abandon to the impulses of her talent in caroiling some gem of song, or as her form glides over the stage in poetic curves. She has a pretty, expressive face, a light, agile form, and a pair of eyes that are overflowing with mirth.

The elog dance of Messrs. Cooper and Fields was exceedingly good.

Mr. Nugent and other members of the company deserve mention.

The burlesque was well received, as the audience testified fully.

THE ATLANTA NEW ERA.—This paper, noted for its demolishing wit, sets itself up as a perfect model of elegant composition and grammatical accuracy. It has devoted itself to the petty business, otherwise styled the "gnat policy," of calling attention to misspelt words in the newspapers of the State, (typographical errors in a majority of instances,) and of exposing indignificent mistakes, worthy of notice only at insignificant hands. Though this petty business, with its impudent assumption and overwhelming self-conceit, has excited the general ridicule of the press, the mighty Sir Critic still continues it. The matter, too, becomes an arrant absurdity, in face of the undeniable fact that the New Era commits as many blunders, if not more, than almost any other newspaper claiming respectability. The Sun some time since, in reply to one of the Era's characteristic criticisms, reproduced from its columns one of the most superbly ridiculous of paragraphs. But that was clearly a typograpical error, which the Sun used simply to show the absurdity of such criticism. But Sunday's Era contained an article on the street railroads, in which occurs a sentence that in point of ungrammatical construcion and exquisite nonsense, defies competition; and the mistake cannot possibly be explained away as a typographical error. "Its contemplated," says Sir Critic, "to purchase light cars, capable of accommodating fourteen or sixteen of the most approved pattern." Ye stars and little fishes! "Light cars" to accommodate "fourteen or sixteen" other cars—and that, too, of the most approved pattern. Prepare, ye people, for the grandest spectacle ever witnessed upon your streets. That street car company must be a party of "gay old boys." But, it is suggested, the compositor evidently left out persons after the word "sixteen." Possibly! The cars would then "accommodate fourteen or sixteen persons of the most approved pattern." Indeed! "Du tell!" There is a good time coming for our friend Flynn and the "Phat Boy." They are generally considered of largely approved pattern. Go to, now, thou arrant humbug! stop your foolish criticism—cease making yourself ridiculous in the eyes of your brethren of the press.

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.—To relieve the aching heart of woman and bring joy where sorrow reigned supreme, is a mission before which the smiles of kings dwindle into utter insignificance. To do this is the peculiar province of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator; which, from the numberless cures it has accomplished, is appropriately styled Woman's Best Friend. The distressing complaint known as "whites," and the various irregularities of the womb, to which woman is subject, disappear like magic before a single bottle of this wonderful compound. It is prepared by L. H. Bradfield, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga., and sold at $1.50 per bottle by respectable druggists everywhere. Physicians prescribe it. Its action is prompt, sure and decisive.

BE GUIDED BY WHAT YOU KNOW.—There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides, in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans an impostors, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wider range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their hap-hazard concoections, as substitutes for the tonic which for so many years has been a medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada, and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

READ!

IT is well known to Doctors and to Ladies, that Women are subject to numerous diseases peculiar to their sex—such as Suppression of the Menses, Whites, Painful Monthly "Periods," Rheumatism of the Back and Womb, irregular Menstruation, Hemorrhage, or Excessive "Flows," and Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb.

These diseases have seldom been treated successfully. The profession has sought diligently for some remedy that would enable them to treat these diseases with success.

At last that remedy has been discovered by one of the most skillful physicians in the State of Georgia. That remedy is

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR.

It is purely vegetable, and is put up in Atlanta, Ga., by Bradfield & Co.'

It will purify the blood and strengthen the system, relieve irritation of the kidneys, and is a perfect specific for all the above diseases, as a certain cure as quinine is to Chills and Fevers.

For a history of diseases and certificates of its wonderful cures, the reader is referred to the wrapper around each bottle.

Every bottle warranted to give satisfaction or money refunded.

LAGRANGE, Ga., March 23, 1870.

BRADFIELD & Co., Atlanta, Georgia:

DEAR SIRS: I take pleasure in stating that I have used, for the last twenty years, the medicine you are putting up, known as Dr. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR, and consider it the best compound ever gotten together for the diseases for which it is recommended. I have been familiar with the prescription, both as practioner of medicine and in domestic practice and can honestly say that I consider it a boon to suffering females, and can but hope every lady in the land, who may be suffering in any way peculiar to their sex, may be able to procure a bottle, that their sufferings may not only be relieved, but that they may be restored to health and strength.

With my kindest regards, I am, respectfully,
W. B. FARRELL, M. D.

We, the undersigned, Druggists, take pleasure in commending to the trade Dr. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR—believing it to be a good and reliable remedy for the diseases for which he recommends it.

W. A. LANSDELL, Atlanta, Georgia.

REDWINE & FOX, Atlanta, Georgia.
W. C. LAWSHE, Atlanta, Georgia.
W. ROOT & SON, Marietta, Georgia.

Dr. Prophitt's Celebrated Liver Medicine.

It is purely vegetable, and will act upon the Liver and Kidneys as promptly as Calomel and Buchu, without any danger of salivation or destruction of the bones.

Parties taking this medicine need not fear getting wet, or any other reasonable exposure.

Symptoms of Liver Disease:

Headache, Dull Feeling or the Blues, Sour Stomach, Sick or Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Indigestion or Dyspepsia, Bad or Bitter Taste in the Mouth, the skin has a thick, rough feeling, and is darker than usual, Costiveness, Melancholy Feelings, Cramps, Cold Feet, Colic, Dysentery or Diarrhea, Chills and Fever, and Piles. In fact, where the Liver is out of order, you are liable to every disease that is not contagious.

Prophitt's Liver Medicine, if taken properly, will prevent and cure any disease resulting from a deranged Liver.

It will regulate its functions and thus cure all diseases caused by the failure of its healthy action.

It has been used for a great number of years, and has given universal satisfaction.

There is no brother or son claiming to have the original receipt. It is put up in both Powder and Fluid form.

FAIRBURN, GA., September 4, 1868.

DR. O. S. PROPHITT:

SIR: My wife has been an invalid for fifteen years. Doctors all agree she had "Liver Disease." In connection with their practice she used various noted remedies, none of which seemed to do any good. Sometime ago I procured a bottle of "Liver Medicine," of your agent here, C. A. Harvey, which being given according to directions, has effected a complete cure. GEO. L. THOMPSON.

ATLANTA, GA., July 18, 1870.

MESSRS. BRADFIELD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN—Last year, during my travels in Alabama and Southwest Georgia, I contracted chills and fever, and my general health became very bad. I tried various remedies, and among others Shallcross's Pills—all to no purpose. I was troubled with intense pain in the small of my back, and for months I did not have a moment's rest. I had well nigh despaired of recovering when a friend recommended me to take Dr. Propitt's Liver Medicine. I did so, and one bottle has cured me; and to-day I feel like another man. I consider it one of the best medicines for general use now put up, and, withmuch confidence, recommend it to the afflicted.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, yours, etc.,
O. M. HARRALSON.

DR. PROPHITT'S Dysentery Cordial

Is one of the most valuable compounds now put up for Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Infantum, or Cholera Morbus.

This medicine has been in use for years, and gives universal satisfaction.

The most delicate child may take it with impunity.

COVINGTON, GA., November 9, 1867.

DR. PROPHITT:

Having a severe attack of Dysentery during the past summer, I was induced to use your Dissentery Cordial, and derived therefrom immediate and permanent relief. It gives me pleasure to recommend this remedy to all who may be so attacked, believing that, should the directions be followed, relief would surely be obtained.
Yours, etc.,
O. S. PORTER.

CUSSETA, TEXAS, 1869.

DR. PROHITT:

DEAR SIR—Your Liver Medicine and Pain Kill It is a complete success. J. L. WHITTLE.

PROPHITT'S Pain Kill It!

This is the celebrated medicine that run Perry Davis' Pain Killer out of the market, wherever it was sold. Davis made Prophitt change the name from Pain Killer to Pain Kill It.

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or pain of any kind, it has no equal.

For Cuts, Bruises, Burns, or old Sores, it is the best thing you can use for a dressing.

For Snake Bites or Stings of Poisonous Insects, it is a perfect antidote.

It is good for Colic, Colds, Conchs or Bowell Complaint, its name indicates its nature fully. It is truly DEATH to pain.

Manufactured and sold by BRADFIELD & CO., Atlanta, Georgia, and by all Druggists.

NEWTON FACTORY, GA., November, 1867.

DR. PROPHITT:

Last summer my horse sprained his ankle severely, causing the whole leg to swell to about twice the natural size, and rendering him almost helpless; two applications of your Anodyne Pain Kill It thoroughly cured it. JOHN B. DAVIS.

DR. PROPHITT'S Fever and Ague Pills,

THE BRIGANDS OF BERLIN.

There lived a very pious man,
Who in his early youth began
To work for crime's suppression;
But much I fear that 'neath the hood
Of being very, very good—
Thieving was his profession.

Whate'er he wanted, that he took,
He gain'd his ends by hook or crook,
But most by Measures forcible.
Still o'er his victim he would pray,
Because, you see, this was the way
Of Holy Bill the plausible.

Said William then, this pious man,
I'll rob these people, 'cause I can,
And 'cause I'm pious thought to be—
Das will ich think sehr jolly seyn—
If sides, their property is mine—
Or, if it ain't, it ought to be.

And so he robb'd them left and right,
When they were weak and couldn't fight,
And ransack'd all their premises;
Because, you see, 'twas understood
He was so very, very good—
He he had no fear of Nemesis.

FIRE.—About 4 o'clock this morning, a fire occurred on the west side of Marietta street, corner of Bartow street, opposite the Tremont House, and the residence of E. R. Carr. The fire originated in the basement of a store-house owned by Mr. Jesse Dean, and occupied by Mr. Robert A. Wylie. The building was entirely consumed. Amount of stock of Mr. W. $3000; insurance $2,000. Mr. Dean had $300 insurance on the house. The house on the east of Mr. Dean is so badly burned that it is worthless, it was occupied by Mays & Bro. They had $3 000 insurance on their goods. The building was owned by Mr. —— Carlton, no insurance on it. The Mechanic's Saloon is on the opposite corner to Dean's, and is owned by Uncle Johnny Weaver. The roof of his building was pretty much burned off, the house otherwise injured. He had no insurance, and his loss is pretty heavy.

I beg leave to call the attention of the reader to testimonials in favor of the Schnapps:

I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such may be safely prescribed by physicians. DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 1.—I feel that we have now an article of gin suitable for such cases as that remedy is adapted to. DR. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc.

I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant,
CARS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1867.—UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present: Dear Sir—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the "Schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHEMICAL AND TECHNICAL LABORATORY, 18 EXCHANGE PLACE, NEW YORK, Nov. 26, 1867.—Udolpho Wolfe, Esq.: Dear Sir—The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination, we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities.
Respectfully yours,
(Signed) ALEX. TRIPPEL, Chemist.

Attention Claimants Against the Western and Atlantic Railroad.

THE Board of Commissioners to audit claims against the Western and Atlantic Railroad have met and organized, and ordered the publication of the following:

ORDERED: That the Clerk publish notice that the Board is organized and ready to investigate claims against the Western and Atlantic Railroad, that parties having claims, file the same with the Clerk, verified by affidavit, or affidavits, showing the justice thereof, and that the sum is still due and unpaid.

In disputed cases the Board will make such order in regard to testimony as it may deem proper in such particular case, and in cases already pending in court interrogatories sued out in the same can be used as evidence.

The Board, in conducting its business, will be governed by and conform to the laws of Arbitration as far as applicable.

The Board will meet on the 5th and 6th instant at the office of Hillyer & Bro. It will reassemble at the Western and Atlantic Railroad Depot on Thursday, the 13th instant.
